

SEPTEMBER 30, 2015

HANDS-ON DIGITAL IMPRESSIONS

FROM SINGLE CROWNS TO IMPLANTS AND FULL MOUTH REHABILITATION

Presentation By: 3M

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS

- Introduction to digital impressions in dentistry
- Overview of indications for digital impressions and digital workflows
- Demonstration of scans and hands-on utilization of scanner

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Understand the implant digital workflow and utilize new technologies for more predictable patient outcomes.
- Understand the benefits associated with intraoral scanning versus conventional impressions.
- Provide treatment based upon the patient's needs while reducing chairtime and achieving enhanced aesthetic outcomes.
- Establish a criteria for the selection and design of abutments and restorative treatment options with a focus on CAD/CAM solutions.

NO COVER

2 C.E. CREDITS

DINNER PROVIDED

RSVP BY SEPTEMBER 25TH
TO CTANNER@GPSDENTAL.COM OR BY CALLING OUR FRONT OFFICE AT
407-447-4250

REGISTRATION: 5:30 – 6 P.M.

PRESENTATION: 6 – 8 P.M.

GPS DENTAL LAB™

3501 PARKWAY CENTER CT.

ORLANDO, FL 32808

3M Science.
Applied to Life.™

GPS DENTAL LAB™

ADA CERP® | Continuing Education
Recognition Program

A Academy of General Dentistry PACE
Program Approval for Continuing Education